Dr. Xia Cheng

Doctor of Acupuncture, DTCM

PhD in Medicine

About Dr. Cheng

Dr. Cheng earned her Bachelor's Degree in TCM and Western Medicine in 1983 from the Hunan University of TCM. She did further study at Tianjin University of TCM, culminating in 1987 with a Master's Degree in Medicine and Acupuncture. In 1990, she received her PhD in Medicine from the Chengdu University of TCM, with a specialty in Acupuncture and Chronomedicine.

Dr. Cheng worked as a professor at Beijing Union University TCM College, and Beijing Acupuncture College where she instructed foreign students. She has translated several publications and is a published author of several TCM works. Prior to immigrating to Canada, Dr. Cheng worked as visiting professor in Canada, Denmark and practiced in Luxembourg. Dr. Cheng has over 40 years of clinical experience as a TCM Doctor and Doctor of Acupuncture with specialties in women's health, digestive and neurological disorders.

In September 2004, her long-time dream of opening a school of TCM with high standard was realized with the opening of CITCM, which she is proud to be the Executive Director.

Dr. Cheng is also the Director of the BodyMind Synergy Health Centre and Vice President of Alberta Association of Acupuncturists of TCM Doctor (AAATCMD) who actively involves in the process of regulating TCM in Alberta. She is currently a guest professor in CDUTCM, she also teaches various TCM workshops.

About CITCM, CBC-CDUTCM

In 2004, when Dr. Xia Cheng established CITCM in Calgary, Alberta, she believed that quality education builds the success of the profession, as well happiness is often achieved by reaching out and helping those in need. She wanted to share her knowledge and passion for natural medicine including acupuncture, Chinese herbal medicine, massage, and nutrition with students interested in Eastern wisdom and philosophy. She also wanted to share her approach to heal the body via physical, psychological, and emotional aspects to create healthier and happier individuals and communities. As one of Canada's premier Acupuncture and TCM Colleges, CITCM's curriculum challenges the brightest minds. Under the guidance of the WE integrated philosophy, CITCM's unique educational model emphasizes study of both Eastern and Western medical knowledge, combining theory with hands-on practice, as well as a compassionate community focus for an enriched learning experience.

Mission Statement

At CITCM, we train highly skilled Doctors of Acupuncture, Traditional Chinese Medicine Practitioners, and Massage Therapists utilizing an interactive positive learning environment with experienced, enthusiastic, caring, and knowledgeable faculty.

We promote the integration of Traditional Chinese Medicine with Western Medicine. We strive to treat patient illness and maintain health and wellbeing through natural medicine. We educate our students, patients, and community understand and view the body, mind, and spirit as a whole.

CITCM Graduation 2025

Program Delivery & Schedule

Course Delivery

The majority of courses in the program are delivered onsite, with select courses offered online or in a blended format that combines in-person and online learning. Laboratory and practical courses are primarily conducted in person to ensure essential hands-on experience.

Class Schedule

In person classes are typically held Monday to Friday, from 8:00 AM to 12:00 PM for most of the class schedules.

Clinical Practicum

The clinical practicum is a vital part of the program, providing supervised, real-world experience. Practicum sessions are scheduled outside of regular class hours:

- Weekdays: 12:30 PM – 8:30 PM
- Saturdays: 9:00 AM – 5:00 PM

Students complete 4 hours per week in their 1st and 2nd years, increasing to 8–10 hours per week in their 3rd and 4th years.

Term Structure

Each term consists of 13 weeks of classes and 15 weeks of clinical practicum:

- Fall Term: Classes – after the labor day to 1st week of December; Clinic – until mid-December
- Winter Term: Classes – 1st week of January to end of March; Clinic – until mid-April
- Spring Term: Classes – 3rd week of April to 3rd week of July; Clinic – until 1st week of August

Enrollment Semesters

CITCM accepts applications twice a year – Spring (April) and Fall (September).

- Spring Intake (April): First-term courses are delivered asynchronously online, with three scheduled in-person sessions during the term. Starting from the second term in the Fall, students transition to in-person classes Monday – Friday for the remainder of the program.
- Fall Intake (September): Students begin with Monday – Friday in-person classes from the very first term and continue this schedule throughout the program.

This diversity enriches your learning experience and broadens your perspective.

WE (Western & Eastern) Integrated Philosophy

CITCM's unique program integrates Western and Eastern knowledge of medicine for an enriched learning experience.

The WE Integrated Philosophy incorporates Western and Eastern medical knowledge into holistic healing.

Following CITCM's exclusive WE philosophy, students receive extensive knowledge of Western medicine so they can utilize and integrate Western medical knowledge into their practice, as well as effectively communicate with other health practitioners.

Our students study the theory and modalities of Eastern medicine such as acupuncture, Chinese herbal medicines, moxibustion, cupping, Tui Na, Tai Ji and Qi Gong exercises and much more. They also study Western medicine such as anatomy, physiology, nutrition with clinical oriented focus. Marketing and business are included in the curriculum.

CITCM graduates have the knowledge and insight to work in partnership with other health practitioners. The comprehensive education on both eastern and western biomedicine allows graduates thoroughly assess patients and then to determine appropriate treatment plans. The WE Philosophy prepares our graduates for thriving practice in integrated medicine field.

The WE Philosophy promotes:

- That to be aware of our own health and lead a lifestyle that fosters and supports our own wellbeing, paired with a willingness to help others is as important and integral to our success in this health care field, as our knowledge and skills.
- Understanding the philosophy of Chinese Medicine is fundamental in that its framework is our guiding principle towards understanding the individual, both physiologically and psychologically.
- This deeper understanding of WE Philosophy allows the practitioner to determine the best strategies to assist and promote the body's natural healing process.
- The origin of Traditional Chinese Medicine is based on both ancient philosophy and science. The present developments of Traditional Chinese Medicine have allowed for interaction and integration with modern science and technology that will lead Chinese Medicine into a new and expanded phase of achievement; and
- The health of body, mind and spirit are interrelated; restoring and maintaining health and wellness means achieving harmony in all three.

International Collaborations

Canadian Branch College of Chengdu University of Traditional Chinese Medicine (CBC-CDUTCM)

CITCM has been collaborating with Chengdu University of TCM (CDUTCM) since 2006 for the bachelor's degree of Traditional Chinese Medicine program. In 2021, CITCM was appointed as Canadian Branch College of CDUTCM, the first and the only branch college in North America. The partnership allows both institutes to expand more collaborations in degree programs, eLearning and many more!

Under the current partnership, students interested in pursuing a bachelor's degree in Traditional Chinese Medicine may do so by completing a four-year of study at CITCM Double Major program, and a five-month internship at the university hospital in Chengdu University of TCM in the Sichuan province of China.

Doctor of Acupuncture Diploma Program

Natural, Holistic, Student-Loan Eligible.

Acupuncture is a specialized field within the scope of Traditional Chinese Medicine. CITCM's Doctor of Acupuncture Diploma program offers an in-depth study of Acupuncture as well as Chinese medicine theory, diagnostic techniques, and Chinese herbal medicine. The curriculum leads students to study both Chinese medicine as well as fundamental medical science courses such as anatomy, physiology, pathology, biochemistry, microbiology, and more.

CITCM's Doctor of Acupuncture Diploma program has a tremendous focus on clinical internship, which trains the students to accurately assess the patient and identify the best course of treatment. They will learn to treat ailments including internal, pediatric (children's illness), gynecology (women's illnesses), dermatology (skin disorders) conditions, etc. Students are encouraged to participate in an internship at a university hospital in China (optional) where students will study under the most experienced professors and doctors for an extensive clinical training. This allows students to gain abundant clinical experience.

When students graduate from this program, they will be confident and competent to establish themselves as a Doctor of Acupuncture in the alternative health care field. CITCM's Doctor of Acupuncture diploma program graduates are eligible to write the Pan Canadian TCM Acupuncturist examinations facilitated by the College of Acupuncturists of Alberta (CAA) to become a Registered Acupuncturist with the title Doctor of Acupuncture.

CITCM's Doctor of Acupuncture diploma students are encouraged to study concurrently a Double Major career path in Doctor of Acupuncture and Doctor of Traditional Chinese Medicine diplomas. This advanced program allows the student to study the acupuncture specialization concurrently with the extensive herbology practice for the same tuition cost and during the same academic hours, mostly from 8:00 am to 12:00 noon, Monday to Friday. All four years of study are eligible for student loans.

TCM Food Therapy Class

Double Major Program (Doctor of Acupuncture/Doctor of TCM)

Rewarding—Condensed four-years of study

CITCM's unique 4-year Double Major program is a condensed program that is equivalent to the five-year Doctor of TCM program in BC. This program incorporates all the specialized acupuncture training with a comprehensive study in traditional Chinese herbology.

The study includes ancient classics and modern Chinese medicine modalities which consist of extensive study in both acupuncture and Chinese herbal medicine. Students in the double major program also complete 78 hours of Orthopedic Sports Acupuncture training, allowing them to expand their knowledge as practitioners and apply this modality in the clinic throughout their program.

The Double Major program is for students who wish to learn concurrently advanced Chinese medicine theories, different natural healing modalities such as Qi Gong, Tai Ji, food and nutrition therapy, cupping, massage, with a focus on acupuncture and Chinese herbal medicine. Throughout the program students will become competent in acupuncture and advanced traditional Chinese medicine using individualized herbal prescriptions and herbal supplement therapy. This allows graduates a distinct advantage in their future practice. As a practicing Doctor of Acupuncture, you will be able to help many patients experience the natural healing benefits of acupuncture and Chinese herbal medicine.

The benefits of the Double Major program in Acupuncture and Traditional Chinese Medicine:

- ❖ Complete the Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM) Practitioner program concurrently with the Acupuncture Diploma within 4 years
- ❖ Advanced courses including TCM Gynecology, TCM Pediatric, TCM EENT, TCM Research, Orthopedic Sport Acupuncture, and more.
- ❖ Eligible to write the Pan-Canadian TCM Practitioner Examination
- ❖ Unlock broader career opportunities, including:
 - Labour mobility – transfer your credentials to other regulated provinces where the TCM Practitioner designation is recognized such as in BC and ON.
 - Eligibility for TCM Practitioner licensure in the USA through International Consultants of Delaware (ICD) assessment process to be eligible to write the exams for NCCAOM
- ❖ Meet the requirements of CDUTCM Bachelor's Degree program with degree internationally recognized, e.g. USA, Germany, Australia, Singapore, Thailand, and more.

Bachelor's Degree Program from CDUTCM

Bachelor of Traditional Chinese Medicine

As a branch college of CDUTCM, CITCM students will be granted with a bachelor's degree by CDUTCM after completing CITCM's Double Major Acupuncture/Doctor of TCM diploma program and completing a five-month internship at the CDUTCM affiliated hospitals. The Bachelor program offers the value of international study experience; study under the professors and famous TCM clinical experts; working in the hospitals that practice integrated medicine, and to refine and improve the skills built at CITCM. CITCM works with our students to prepare cross-cultural adaptation and language barriers that may present. Chengdu University of TCM supports our students by providing interpreters during instruction and internship. Earning a degree in Acupuncture and Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM) distinguishes practitioners in their field and opens the door to international career opportunities, especially for those considering relocation to other countries.

Double Major Plus Program (Doctor Acupuncture/DTCM plus 2200-Hour WE Integrated Orthopedic Massage)

The fusion of the three programs uses overlapping classes to accelerate the process of study for acupuncture, TCM and massage, saving one year of study.

This program provides graduates with several tools to start a successful practice as an Acupuncturist, Doctor of Traditional Chinese Medicine, and Orthopedic Massage Therapist. Additionally, the WE Integrated Massage diploma may be awarded upon completion of all its requirements prior to completion of the Acupuncture/DTCM program.

This will help students to start their career as a complementary health care provider while still in the process of completing the Acupuncture/DTCM program.

Facilities

Campus

CITCM is located at Two Executive Place, 300 1824 Crowchild Trail NW in the beautiful city of Calgary. The 10,000 square feet of space is home to a state-of-the-art campus which includes professional treatment rooms, classrooms, a massage room, a lounge with a balcony allowing a view of the Rocky Mountains, an herbal pharmacy, and a comfortable waiting room for patients and guests.

CITCM is a five-minute walk from McMahon Stadium and the University of Calgary is nearby. It is close to several major bus routes and the Banff Trail C-train station, a major shopping mall; parking is available off and on site.

Onsite and Offsite Clinic

Intern students can gain practical experience under the guidance of supervisors in a professional clinic onsite and offsite campus. Onsite clinic shifts are available Monday–Saturday between 4–8 hours a week. Interns also have opportunities to work and experience with various patients at our offsite community clinics as part of your learning and be able to contribute the time, skills, and knowledge to Calgary’s most vulnerable.

Offsite Community Events

Other than practicing in clinical settings, CITCM also actively participates in various offsite community events to allow students to gain experience and opportunities to give back to the community. In the past we had massage booths in some events such as Women’s Run, Kidney March, Make a Wish, UoC Alumni Association, Calgary Ironman, Wildrose Women’s Triathlon, Nurse’s Week at Peter Lougheed Hospital, etc.

International Students

CITCM welcomes international students to study and experience exceptional learning at our college under one or more of the following programs:

- Acupuncture Diploma Program
- WE Integrated Orthopedic Massage Therapy, both 1113-hour and 2200-hour programs

CITCM programs are Designated Learning Programs and are therefore eligible to enroll foreign nationals on a study permit. We encourage all international students to apply as CITCM believes that having students from all countries and cultures can only benefit and enrich both the student and the college.

CITCM is a Designated Learning Institution in Canada (DLI No: O19256722732)

CITCM is a Designated Learning Institution as of June 1st, 2014. International students have several advantages to attending CITCM to study massage, acupuncture, or traditional Chinese medicine. In addition to exceptional education a foreign student will normally:

- Be able to work up to 20 hours per week off campus while studying at CITCM with a valid study permit;
- Be able to have provincial health care coverage while studying at CITCM;
- Pay the same tuition as Canadian students;
- Visitor/Work Permit holders may apply within Canada (check IRCC website for more details)

International Student Application

1. Date of the Application Deadline

Our programs start every September. International students are advised to apply at least 6 months before to allow sufficient time for application acceptance and study permit process.

2. Meet the admission requirements and Language Proficiency Requirements

English is the language of instruction in all programs at CITCM. All international students must meet the admissions requirements outlined in the Admissions section of the CITCM Student Handbook and meet the required English Language Proficiency requirement. To enable academic success all international student applicants are required to demonstrate communicative proficiency in the English language prior to admission acceptance at CITCM. To satisfy this, a student may need to provide one of the following:

- A TOEFL IBT score of 72 or higher with a minimum of 18 in each skill/category on the internet-based test. English Language Arts 30-1 equivalency.
- An IELTS score of 6.0 in each skill/category or higher. English Language Arts 30-1 equivalency.
- Successful completion of English, with a minimum course mark of 60%, including a minimum of three years of education at an English-speaking Canadian school or at a recognized International English-speaking school.
- Completion with a minimum course mark of 60% from post-secondary English or Communications course, including a minimum of three years of education at an English-speaking Canadian School or at a recognized International English-speaking school.
- A minimum score of 7 in Canadian Language Benchmarks Assessment (CLBA). The CLBA measures English proficiency in Listening, Speaking, Reading, and Writing.

3. Prepare your finances.

The financial requirements of Immigration, Refugees, and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) must be met in all cases for International Students.

4. Prepare your application documents.

Documents to be included in the application package:

- A Completed Application Form
- Copies of official transcript and diploma certificate of high school or post-secondary
- Letter of Intent (describing why you would like to study Acupuncture/TCM/Massage at CITCM)
- Two Letters of Reference (can be from past employers, instructors, etc.)
- A current photo identification card (ID Card)
- Documents that are not in English must be accompanied by an official English translation.

Please do not send your original documents to CITCM (transcripts and diploma certificates). Once you are admitted, you will be asked to submit the official transcripts.

5. Application for a student visa.

If you are not a Canadian citizen or a permanent resident of Canada, you will require a study permit. Please check IRCC website about the requirements, eligibility, and processing time. Please include CITCM DLI number in your study permit application as required by IRCC.

Frequently Asked Questions

Are the CITCM programs accredited?

CITCM is licensed under the Private Vocational Schools Act and approved program by the College of Acupuncturists of Alberta (CAA). CITCM is also granted as a Canadian Branch College of Chengdu University of Traditional Chinese Medicine (CDUTCM), or “CBC-CDUTCM”, since 2021 which allows students to complete a bachelor’s degree education of TCM via collaboration between CITCM and CDUTCM.

How long per day will I have to study?

On average most students spend approximately 4 hours in class in the morning and about 2 -3 hours daily studying and completing assignments after normal class time. In addition to class time, there is a total of between 4 (1st & 2nd years) to 8-10 hours (3rd & 4th years) of clinic practicum per week in the afternoon.

Can I work while going to school?

Yes. Currently, lectures for the Acupuncture and DTCM program are scheduled in the morning during weekdays (there are a few exceptions to this). WE Integrated Orthopedic Massage programs are scheduled two days/week for practical classes. These schedules allow students to obtain part-time employment during the school year to help with their finances.

When I complete the program can I run my own clinic?

Yes. That is the route that many graduates have taken and CITCM will help train you for that through the business courses that are part of the curriculum. Many graduates also find positions in acupuncture/TCM clinics, or as well as other health professions, such as chiropractor, physiotherapist, family doctor other multi-disciplinary health clinics.

Who are the regulatory bodies of acupuncture/TCM professions in Canada?

There are five provinces in Canada that regulate acupuncture and/or TCM profession:

- Alberta – College of Acupuncturists of Alberta – <http://acupuncturealberta.ca/> Alberta regulates acupuncture only. The professional title of acupuncture practitioner in Alberta is Doctor of Acupuncture, Dr. Ac., Registered Acupuncturist, or R. Ac.
- British Columbia – College of Traditional Chinese Medicine Practitioners and Acupuncturists of British Columbia – <http://www.ctcma.bc.ca/>: British Columbia regulate both acupuncture and TCM. The professional title in BC for acupuncture and TCM practitioners are as following: Registered Acupunctrist, R. Ac, TCM practitioner, or TCMP, TCM Doctor, or TCMD.
- Ontario – College of Traditional Chinese Medicine Practitioners and Acupuncturists of Ontario – <https://www.ctcmpao.on.ca/>: Ontario regulate both acupuncture and TCM. The professional title in OT for acupuncture and TCM practitioners are as following: Registered Acupuncturist, R.Ac. and TCM practitioner, or TCMP.

- Quebec – Association des Acupuncteurs du Québec – <http://www.acupuncture-quebec.com/en/discover-acupuncture/acupuncture-profession.html>: Quebec regulate acupuncture, the professional title for acupuncture profession in Quebec is Registered Acupuncturist, or R. Ac. (need to read more)
- Newfoundland – College of Traditional Chinese Medicine and Acupuncture of Newfoundland and Labrador – <http://ctcmpanl.ca/>: Newfoundland regulate both acupuncture and TCM.

What are the minimum requirements of education to get an acupuncture license in Alberta?

To be enrolled in approved acupuncture training/school by CAA under acupuncture/TCM program that includes a minimum of 1,600 study hours that meets the criteria set out below:

- At least 500 of those hours are dedicated to clinical instruction.
- During the 500 clinical hours, students see a minimum of 200 patient visits.
- Out of the 200 patient visits, at least 50 are new patients (or 20 new patients & 30 case studies).

What are the requirements to get an acupuncture license in Alberta?

Acupuncture is a regulated profession in Alberta and 4 other provinces in Canada. This regulation ensures public safety and competence of practitioners by requiring licensees to meet specific educational and examination and other requirements.

To qualify to practice acupuncture in Alberta you need to be licensed as a Doctor of Acupuncture or Registered Acupuncturist through the College of Acupuncturists of Alberta (CAA).

To obtain the acupuncture license, you need to pass the following exams:

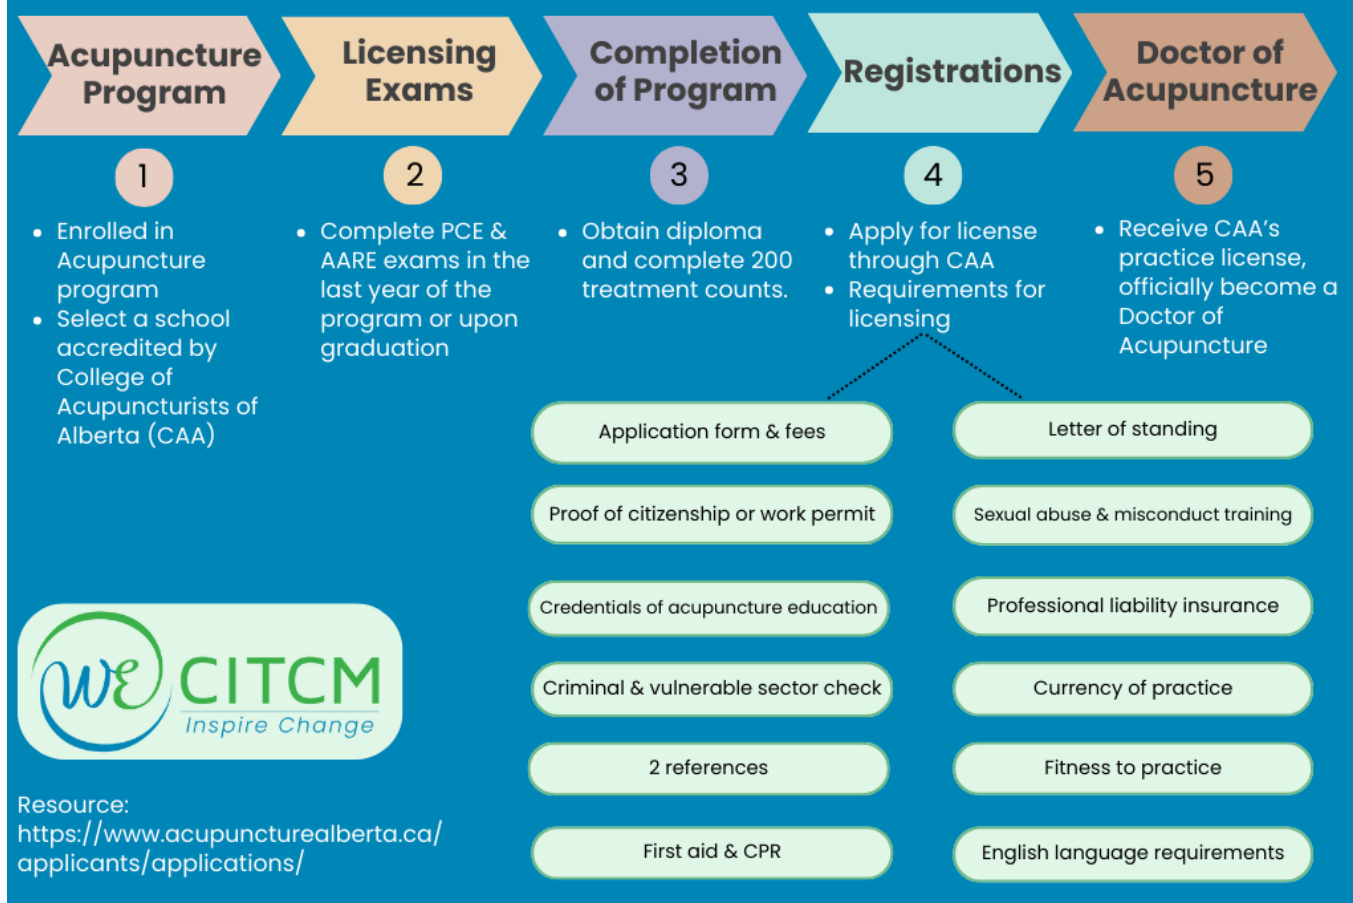

- Pan Canadian Acupuncture Licensing Exam (PCEs): Multiple Choices and Case Study
- CAA Safety Exam
- CAA Modalities Exam
- CAA Acupuncture Points Exam

Only people who passes the above exams as well as meet all the other requirements such as completion of acupuncture program/diploma, practice insurance, policy records, English language requirements, first Aid and CPR, etc. Check CAA website for more: acupuncturealberta.ca

Which organizations are responsible for administering the Pan-Canadian Acupuncture/TCM licensing exam?

College of Acupuncturists of Alberta (CAA) and Canadian Alliance of Regulatory Bodies of Traditional Chinese Medicine Practitioners and Acupuncturists (CARB-TCMPA).

Steps to Become a Doctor of Acupuncture

I am a western trained health professional; will I receive advanced standing into the Doctor of Acupuncture/Doctor of Traditional Chinese Medicine program?

CITCM encourages doctors, nurses, or any other health professionals to apply to the Double Major Diploma Program. As a trained health practitioner, it is possible that you will receive up to 1000 hours (medical doctors) of credit transfers for both theory and clinic practicum towards the Double Major Diploma Program. With this, you may be able to complete the four-year program in three years (credit transfer assessment policy and fee apply). For other health practitioners who wish to further their career into practice of acupuncture/TCM, you have the advantages to transfer credits for both theory classes as well as some clinical hours, that will possibly allow you to graduate from the program two or more semesters early (credit transfer assessment policy and fee apply).

As CITCM graduate, can I practice anywhere in Canada?

Yes, you can. CITCM double major acupuncture/TCM curriculum meets the requirements of educational hours of across Canada. Which means that as a graduate from CITCM, you are eligible to attend exams including Acupuncture licensing, TCMP or TCMD licensing at any provinces where acupuncture, TCM are regulated. You will have to pass the licensing exams as the following: the Pan-Canadian Entry-level Examinations for Acupuncturists registration exams to be licensed as a Doctor of Acupuncture in Alberta, or Registered Acupuncturist in other provinces to practice Chinese herbal medicine, you will have to pass Pan Canadian Entry Level Examination for herbalist. Under federal labor mobility act, you may transfer your license to other provinces through their regulatory bodies. Currently there are 5 provinces that regulate acupuncture and/or traditional Chinese medicine and herbs. These are Alberta, British Columbia, Ontario, Quebec, and Newfoundland. Each province determines the professional requirements to allow Acupuncture and traditional Chinese medicine (Acupuncture/TCM) practitioners and doctors to legally practice. To aid the provinces in this procedure and to create a national standard for Acupuncture/TCM Ontario, British Columbia, and Human Resource Development Canada produced the Pan-Canadian Acupuncture and traditional Chinese medicine exams. Currently there are three exams that are now offered based on the professional title and designations which are: Doctor of Acupuncture/Licensed or Registered Acupuncturist, Registered TCM Herbalist, Traditional Chinese Medicine Practitioner.

Alberta, Ontario, British Columbia, and Newfoundland are all utilizing the Pan Canadian Examinations. Quebec has a different method of regulation.

As a graduate from the CITCM, am I able to practice in the United States?

CITCM graduates will be able to practice in United States if they pass the required licensing exam in the United States. Through assessment process by The International Consultants of Delaware Inc., CITCM graduates are able to have the transcript assessed and determined to be eligible to challenge the acupuncture exams to practice in most states in the USA through NCCAOM.

As a graduate from the CITCM, am I able to practice internationally?

Every country (or possibly every jurisdiction, state, or province within a country) may have different regulations for professional practice. It is up to the practitioner to research international employment and regulations. CITCM graduates with bachelor's degree from CDUTCM are may be able to write exams internationally such as in USA, Singapore, Thailand, Germany. Students must pursue their own inquiry into each country regulations.

Which association I can join as member and what are the benefits of joining an association?

Alberta Association of Acupuncturists and Traditional Chinese Medical Doctors (AAATCMD) is founded to represent the members in liaison with Alberta government in the process of establishing legislation for Traditional Chinese Medical Doctors in Alberta. They also promote the recognition of the profession of Traditional Chinese Medical Doctor among the public and maintain the professional standards of practice of Traditional Chinese Medicine among our members.

Members receive access to AAATCMD benefits, which include:

- Continuous improvement of your professional skills via our monthly continuing education forums.
- Exclusive access to online webcasts of select professional development forums.
- Subscription to AAATCMD newsletter, highlighting events that are newsworthy for Acupuncture Professionals.
- Inclusion in AAATCMD member database.

CITCM students are encouraged to become the student membership to get involved and updates in Acupuncture/TCM regulations and access to student membership benefits: access to TCM talks/webinars, Shennong scholarships, etc. Website link: <https://aaatcmd.ca/>
